HEADS UP

FAST FACTS:

Golf

The first golf clubs were made of smooth wood. Now they're made of steel, titanium and carbon fiber.

1497

The year the modern game of golf was invented.

1 in 67 million

The odds of making two holes-in-one during a single round of golf.

395 feet

The Guinness World Record for the longest recorded completed putt.

336

The number of dimples on a regulation golf ball.

515 YARDS

The length of the longest recorded drive.

One of golf's most celebrated events takes place this month:

The PGA Championship tees off Aug. 10.

2017 PGA CHAMPIONSHIP QUAIL HOLLOW

In 1971,

astronaut Alan Shepard hit golf balls while on the moon.

Golf is the only pro sport in which the lowest score wins.

The first golf balls were made of wood or leather.

Now they're made of a combination of rubber and resin.

Scotland

The birthplace of golf.

Celebrate National Golf Month